Introduces
C. Curtis Fulton

Introducing the name "Fulton" to Freeport is like introducing Jimmie Walker to New York; both names are pillars in the foundations of their respective communities; both well known to the old-timers; so therefore, this is intended to acquaint the new residents of our village with Curtis Fulton.

C. CURTIS FULTON

Curtis' father, Chester A. Fulton, best known as "Dad Fulton," is one of the pioneers of Freeport. His funeral service has been located at the same address on Merrick rd. for the past forty-five years. This was once called Fulton St. During these many years, he has not only served the people of the community faithfully in time of need, but has also participated in various activities winning many friends. Curtis Fulton has followed in the footsteps of his father.

Everything about the Fultons is deeply-rooted with years of association. Four members of the staff have been with the firm from 15 to 25 years. Curtis has lived at 50 Roosevelt ave. for 30 years, and almost every organization to which he belongs has carried his name on its membership list for more than two decades. Besides many others, he is also a member of Freeport Lodge of Elks (served as Chaplain), Spartan Lodge of Masons, S.S. and Freeport Yacht Club. Order of the Amaranth (Charter Member). He was a mascot of the Excelsior Hook & Ladder Co. when he was seven years old and later served as Captain.

Curt Fulton, with his silvery hair, is a well-known figure along the waterways bordering Long Island. Next to boating and fishing, his favorite hobby is motoring. He believes in seeing America first and has visited every state in the Union except Florida. Mrs. Curtis Fulton is the former Marion Brownell of New York City. Daughter Marion Burke's husband is associated with the establishment of Chester A. Fulton & Son, and Marlene attends the Maryland College for Women.

After attending Freeport High School, Mr. Fulton enrolled and was graduated from the Bennett School of Embalming. He is 51 years old. With his assistance, the establishment of Chester A. Fulton & Son has grown to be one of the largest firms of morticians on Long Island. He is a member of the New York Funeral Directors' Association, and National Selected Morticians. Chester A. Fulton serves as an officer of the Metropolitan Funeral Directors' Association.

The name Fulton is one of the landmarks of Freeport, and C. Curtis Fulton continues to carry on the traditions and reputation that have become known to generation after generation.

Voting Starts At Noon On New School; Rev. D.G. Jaxheimer To Leave Freeport

Christ Lutheran Pastor Is Named Assistant to State Synod President

The Rev. David G. Jaxheimer, long pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, was elected assistant to the president of the United Lutheran Synod of New York at the annual meeting in Kingston, N. Y., last week. As his new duties will take him all over the state, making it impossible for him to continue his pastorate here, he read his resignation as minister of the local congregation at the morning service on Sunday. It is to take effect on Sept. 1. A congregational meeting has been called for Sunday night, June 25, to act on the resignation. Pastor Jaxheimer took charge of the local Lutheran congregation on Nov. 1, 1930, so will have served here within two months of 20 years when he assumes his new office. This is almost half the time the church was organized 41 years ago. By a coincidence, the Rev. Mr. Jaxheimer was ordained 31 years ago, when the Synod met in Kingston and this year's session there was the first since that time. The Rev. Carl Miller, his predecessor, now of Lancaster, Pa., was ordained at the same time. Before coming to Freeport Mr. Jaxheimer served Lutheran churches in Hartford, Conn., and the Greenpoint section of Brooklyn. The Rev. Dr. Frank R. Knibel, was elected president of the synod and the office of his assistant, which Pastor Jaxheimer was named, was created at that time. They will have offices in the Old Morgan Mansion at 231 Madison ave., Manhattan.

He was born in Bethlehem, Pa., and studied at Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa., the Philadelphia Lutheran Seminary, the Hartford Seminary and Teachers College, Columbia University.

"Christ Church" was heavily indebted when Pastor Jaxheimer came to Freeport. The mortgage has been paid off, but there are still a number of insurance loans on the property which are held by members of the church. Shortly after coming to Freeport, Mr. Jaxheimer established a branch of the church in Roosevelt, which now has been organized as the mission of The Good Shepherd. Christ Church has been a member of the Freeport Inter-Faith Clergy Council since its inception. The Rev. Mr. Jaxheimer has had a part in nearly everything that has gone in Freeport since he came to Freeport. He was District Chairman of the Freeport Red Cross Branch during the war, is chaplain of the Freeport Police Department, is a former president of the Freeport Lions Club and also of the Freeport Inter-Faith Clergy Council which he helped to organize. He also served as president of the Long Island Conference of the State Synod in which there are 425 churches for two years.

Salvation Army Fund Reaches $4,858 Mark

Contributions totaling $4,858.27 were announced at the final report meeting of the 1950 fund drive for the Freeport Salvation Army Corps, Monday night in headquarters. The goal fixed at the outset of the campaign was $6,500, leaving about $1,600 to be raised to make the drive a success. However, it was said, some workers still had money they had collected and would turn in later. It was decided to continue the campaign quickly, contacting especially those who have failed to do so to date this year.

AN EDITORIAL

Put Children First In Community Planning

What is the first concern of all citizens? It is the welfare and education of their children. What about citizen interest in the proposed school building project? No other single community service from the citizens' viewpoint is as vital as the schools.

In addition to the Citizens' Organization Committee of 40 members from all parts of Freeport, more than 500 volunteers are giving their time and energy promoting this project.

More than 15 outstanding organizations have endorsed the proposition for a new school.

Does the proposed new school meet Freeport school needs? Yes—for it will:

Provide facilities for the present Archer Street School overflow enrollment;

Provide facilities for children of new families for some 450 homes under construction in this area;

Provide for Grove Street School grade pupils, modern school facilities which they have never had;

Release 9 rooms in Grove Street School for Junior-Senior High School use, thereby relieving serious overcrowding.

What will be the effect of any delay in providing the proposed building?

1. Present Archer Street pupils will be "children without a school" farmed out in other areas of the village, overcrowding those schools;

2. There will be no place at all for the children of the families in some 450 new homes already under construction;

3. All children will suffer;

4. Part-time in grade schools, part-time in High School, is not a fair deal for our children;

5. Education and the process of growing up cannot wait for costs to come down.

Will the money spent be a sound investment?

1. Of all the taxes the citizen pays today, money spent for schools brings the most tangible and fullest returns.

2. The record shows that the Freeport grade school promotion is 94.80% and the High School Regents record over a period of years has been 10% above the state average—94.11% and our graduates are admitted to the best colleges in the country. The scholastic record is most outstanding throughout the Freeport Schools.

3. The most previous asset of this community is the 4,000 boys and girls who attend the schools.

4. Cost: A bond issue for $1,300,000 amortized at 2 1/4% in 30 years (and 30 years is the accepted plan for more than 80% of the school systems in the State, where the bond issue is a half-million or over) will cost the property owner with an assessed valuation of $5,000 approximately $8 the first year, reducing each year thereafter.

Vote "Yes" on this much needed improvement for Freeport.

Polls open at 12-Noon today, Thursday, June 15th. Polls are open until 9:00 P. M.

Carol Green To Be Married Sunday To Ira J. Kaplan In Rockville Centre

Miss Carol Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Green, 136 Margaret Blvd., Merrick, is to become the bride of Ira J. Kaplan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kaplan, 28 Byron rd., Merrick, at a ceremony in Temple Emanuel Synagogue, Rockville Centre, Sunday, at 1 P. M. The officiating clergymen will be Rabbi Solomon M. Lipman, of the Merrick Jewish Center, and Rabbi Peretz Halpern of the Rockville Centre Congregation.

Miss Lenore Nancy Green will be her sister's maid of honor, and a cousin, Lauren Beth Leicher, of Hempstead, will be flower girl. Murray Ullian, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, will be his best man. There will be vocal solos by Mrs. Ethel Wadsworth, of Valley Stream, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. McGraw. A reception will follow in the temple after which the couple will leave for a motor trip up State.

Leaders Plan to Get All Registered to the Polls; Northeast Civics Opposed

Freeport voters are to decide today whether a school shall be erected in the southwestern section of the village to relieve the congestion in the Archer st. school and the Junior High School. A proposal to float a $1,300,000 bond issue to finance the construction of a 21-room building, on a plot bounded by West Merrick rd., South Bayview ave., Smith and Washington sts., has been submitted to the residents of the district by the Board of Education and balloting on it will take place in the corridor of the high school auditorium building from noon until 9 P. M.

Numerous groups have endorsed the plans for the new school. They include the Central Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, the units of the Archer st., Seaman ave., Columbus ave., Cleveland ave., and Grove st. schools as well as the Junior-Senior High School P.T.A., the Archer Dads Club, the Fathers' and Boosters' Club of the Freeport Schools, the Northwest, Southwest and Atlantic-South Civic Associations, the Exchange, and Kiwanis Clubs.

To Get the Voters Out

In all 2,200 persons have registered to vote at the special election and members of the various groups that have worked for the project will endeavor to get every one who is physically able out to the polls. In addition to 21 class rooms, plans for two kindergartens, an auditorium accommodating 500, a full sized gymnasium and the usual auxiliary rooms. When the building is completed enough classes will be transferred from the Archer st. school to relieve the congestion there and all the elementary pupils from the Grove st. school, leaving that building for the exclusive use of the junior high school pupils.

The Northeast Civic Association is the monthly meeting in the home of Harry J. Berkowitz, 216 North Ocean ave., Friday night voted to oppose the proposition and to request the Board of Education to withdraw it and submit a new proposal more moderate in cost.

Reasons for taking this action were listed as follows:

"1. The broad scope of building expansion in our district, three buildings, their cost, and lack of ability of many taxpayers to meet the enormous cost has not been fully considered by our Board or fully understood by the voters."

"2. The complete disregard by the Board of Education of an approximate saving of $177,000 in interest charge by paying bond issue in 20 years instead of 30 years."

"3. That greater facilities are needed and can be secured for less money."

"4. That equipment of building should be of a shorter term bond issue."

"5. That the proposition to be voted upon on June 15 is so worded as to be a blank check with no legal obligations other than to construct a school building."

The Association requests "the Board of Education to withdraw the present proposition and in view of the urgent need of proper school facilities in the southern part of our district that they submit a new proposition, in conformity to the above objections, as soon as it is legally possible."

The resolution is to be spread in full on the minutes and copies were ordered sent to the State Board of Regents, the Board of Education and to the press.

LEVY AND WALLENSTEIN GET DEGREES AT TUFTS

Diane Jordan F.H.S. Majorette Gets A Full Scholarship At Adelphi

Diane Jordan, drum majorette of the Freeport High School Band, has been awarded a full scholarship at Adelphi College, Garden City, beginning next fall.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jordan, 83 New York ave., Diane has headed the band in its many engagements for the past two years, and served previously as a twirler with both the junior and senior bands.

An honor student, vice-president of her class, and president during her freshman, sophomore and junior years, Diane was voted the "Girl of the Month" recently, and awarded a plaque for her outstanding record by the Exchange Club.

A performer on TV, appearances at the Polo Grounds and the Yankee Stadium, and many other outstanding events and attractions have featured this young artist of the baton. In addition to regular baton-twirling, Diane also twirls flags, and has used flaming gasoline torches.

When Adelphi College started a band this past fall, J. Maynard Westlauffer, Freeport director, was selected to direct this new unit. To facilitate the Marching Band methods and to use the same training that has made the Freeport Band nationally famous, he had Diane rehearse with the Adelphi Band group. In appearing there at these times, the students requested Diane to drum major the Adelphi Band as a guest, at the Hofstra game, which she did last fall at the Freeport stadium. It was quite natural that Adelphi should then be Diane's choice for her pre-nursing career.

Simon Baumann, Inc., Has Anniversary

Established 62 Years Ago
With Branch in Freeport
For the Past 35 Years

Simon Baumann, Inc., furniture concern, celebrated its 62nd anniversary and the 35th anniversary of the opening of the store at 50 South Main st., during the past week. Mr. Baumann, who died about six years ago, started business in Astoria early in 1888, long before the days of motor truck deliveries and it was not long before customers from as far out on Long Island as Patchogue became his patrons. Delivering furniture by horse and truck sometimes took a couple days, so branches were eventually established in Freeport and Hempstead to facilitate deliveries. This company also has a branch in Jersey City, N.J.

In those days, the Elder Baumann dealt in everything from large kitchen stoves which sold then at the moderate price of $15, to substantial chairs, priced at $1 each. Baby carriages were sold on the installment plan with three months as the time limit.

Jerome B. Baumann, of Freeport, is president of the corporation and William H. Baumann, of Jersey City, vice-president; the Freeport manager is Melvin Baumann, grandson of the founder, Leo B. Baumann, who died four years ago, had charge here for many years.

The Defenses Of Tomorrow

No part of our national defenses is more important than our schools . . . our greatest security for the future does not lay in the formation of any "super welfare state" but in a larger degree of attention to the moral and spiritual development of our youth . . . and the very best influence in our power to provide should be cast about them, especially during the period they are in school.

In our schools are being trained the future leaders of AMERICA . . . they must meet the problems of the coming years, and the best part of their equipment will be love of truth and sincerity, and fidelity to conscience.

We can well be proud of the schools of our community for they have taught these great truths . . . a great job has been, and is being accomplished in the schools for our youth . . . but unfortunately, our schools are no longer adequate . . . we need more class rooms . . . we need more of everything that a good school should provide . . . we need the new school proposed by our Board of Education and endorsed by the following groups:

Central Council P.T.A.; Archer St., Catherine G. Atkinson, Columbus ave., Cleveland ave., Grove st., and Junior-Senior High School Parent-Teacher Associations; Fathers' and Mothers' Club of the Freeport Schools, Exchange Club, Kiwanis Club, South Civic Association, Northwest Civic Association and Atlantic-South Civic Association.

We have an opportunity to vote for this new school today. Voting is at the High School from 12 noon till 9:00 P.M. Vote "YES" for this new school. Help keep the defenses of our country alive and strong. Do not neglect the defenses of tomorrow. Vote "YES" today.

Ray Clements

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mr. Clements:

The plan for the erection of a new school in the southwest part of our Village, as proposed by the Board of Education, seems to be the ideal solution to one of our most pressing problems. We have been advised, and in fact, some of our members know that the present overcrowded condition of our schools has subtracted from the value of our excellent educational system. Recently, after a study of the proposed plan, our club was privileged to have a competent speaker address us on this subject. Before the conclusion of the meeting, and by unanimous vote, it was agreed to endorse the project, and a resolution to said effect was immediately adopted.

As president of the Kiwanis Club of Freeport, I feel that this should be brought to the attention of our residents.

JULIUS L. BIRGENTHAL

Dear Mr. Clements:

The membership of the Southwest Civic Association is highly in favor of the proposal to build a new school on the Bayview Avenue site. The cost of $1,300,000 is completely justified because of the size of the building and the splendid facilities it will contain. A 23 class room building with adequate accommodations for 900 pupils should be large enough to take care of the educational needs of this section for years to come.

WILLIAM ALLYN

Pres. of Southwest Civic and Co-chairman of Citizens Committee

Dear Mr. Clements:

The Northwest Civic Association of Freeport has recently endorsed the Board of Education's plans for the new Bayview Avenue school and has urged the residents of Freeport to vote in its favor at the election on June 15.

The maintenance of a fine primary and secondary educational system in our Village has always been one of the outstanding reasons why Freeport has attracted so many former residents of New York City and other large urban areas. Not only are these people interested in lovely residential neighborhoods, but they are mostly concerned with the future development—mental, spiritual and physical—of their children. To this end we are fortunate to have a Board of Education whose foresight and progressiveness has met the multiple problems of providing school facilities, teachers and new buildings in a period of ever-rising costs. They have been sparing of unnecessary expense, yet are giving the best that can be provided for under existing conditions.

Again, we heartily urge our neighbors and fellow citizens to give them the support they deserve—Thursday, June 15th.

FAY BAAR BROWN, President, Northwest Civic Ass'n.

Dear Mr. Clements:

The Exchange Club of Freeport unanimously endorses the proposition for a new school to serve the southwest area of Freeport.

We consider this proposal by the Board of Education a most worthwhile civic improvement in our rapidly growing community, and a real necessity.

The Exchange Club has always had as one of its main objectives and cardinal principles the advancement and support of education, and the welfare and progress of boys and girls.

This proposed school building has our whole-hearted support.

GEORGE J. SMITH, President, Exchange Club

Dear Mr. Clements:

The Atlantic South Civic Association unanimously approves the Board of Education's proposition for a new school on the Bayview Avenue site. Financing it over a period of 30 years is sound fiscal policy. Eighty percent of the schools of the state sell bonds for a 30 year period when the bond issue is a half million or more.

School buildings are built to last 75 years. It is right, therefore, for all who use them to share the cost. WILBERT WATSON, Pres. Atlantic South Civic Ass'n. and Co-chairman of Citizens Committee.

Dear Mr. Clements:

The parents of the children now attending the Freeport Schools, heartily endorse the building of a new school to serve the children on the South side of Freeport. I feel qualified to make this statement because as President of Central Council Parent-Teacher Association, I have met with the individual Parent-Teacher groups of each school, all of whom support the plan to build this school.

There are many reasons that we parents have for wanting this school. To begin with, our Archer Street School is overcrowded far beyond its capacity. In addition to this fact, the South side of Freeport is now enjoying a large building expansion with many new homes and apartment houses under construction and many recently completed. Most of these families moving into these homes are young couples with children. These children are rapidly becoming of school age. If this school is not erected immediately, we will have a situation on the South side of Freeport where we will not be able to give our children even the best educational because of inadequate facilities.

The plans of the new school have been studied carefully by all the parent groups and most of them only attend the school in the morning in education in our village. After careful study and discussions we are all convinced that the school will provide for our children the finest type equipment and facilities for education, good health and recreation. All these advantages were provided for, with an eye toward the reasonable costs, at least possible burden to the taxpayers.

The financing of this school has been arranged for a 30-year term. The reason this was done was to prevent too heavy a burden from being placed on the old residents and give the new families an opportunity to support this school. We think that this is fair and equitable.

The Parent-Teacher Associations and the Central Council Parent-Teacher Association of Freeport sincerely hope that the citizens of Freeport will support them in giving to our children this new school which they need so urgently.

LAURETTA FELDSTEIN, Mrs. Harry Feldstein, President Central Council Parent-Teacher Ass'n.

Dear Mr. Clements:

I have read, with pride, your splendid editorial on the proposed new school at Bayview Avenue. The best interests of all of our children are to be fulfilled, we must have this school as soon as possible, in order to avoid "part time" work. A 23 room building, as is now planned, with modern equipment, and an auditorium and gymnasium, should take care of the rapidly growing Southern area, for many years to come.

I believe you should finance this school on a 30 year plan. It is only fair, that new residents of Freeport assume their share of the tax burden. Then none of us will feel the small added cost of payments. These new citizens will benefit richly from the results of "over-the-years" planning by the older residents, and should not enjoy them without paying their rightful part.

As a citizen who wants the best in educational facilities for the children of Freeport, I intend to vote "Yes" on this proposition on June 15th.

MRS. VIRGIL L. DICKIEY, President, Columbus Ave. Parent-Teacher Association

Dear Mr. Clements:

Completely aware of the urgent need for another elementary school building in our area, the Archer Street Dads Club gives its unqualified endorsement to the proposition for the Bayview Avenue School.

It is the considered judgment of the members of our organization that a 30 year bond issue is a far more equitable method of financing a school than the shorter 20 year plan. For the average tax-payer, the lower rate for the 30 year bond is a distinct advantage.

GARDINER COBB, President, Archer Street Dads Club

Dear Mr. Clements:

After carefully considering the Board of Education plan for a new school on Bayview Avenue, the Archer Street Parent-Teacher Association is convinced that construction of this 23 classroom building should be started as soon as possible. The plan will not only solve the problems posed by overcrowded conditions in the Archer Street School, but it will also provide our high school with 9 more room for expanding its program.

MARIAN MOLTEROP, President, Archer Street School Parent Teacher Association

Visiting Nurse Gives Address to Rotary Describes Duties, And Also Those of The Health Nurses

Miss Genevieve Reynolds, visiting nurse for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., described the work of health and visiting nurses in a talk to the members of the Rotary Club of Freeport in the Elks clubhouse following supper Thursday night. She was introduced by Edward Burroughs, one of the three more recent members of the club who conducted the meeting. Peter J. Gathy, sr., presided in place of President Ray E. Clements, and George Hedrick officiated as secretary for Charles P. Shinn, jr. Miss Reynolds spoke in place of Congressman Leonard W. Hall, who had been announced as the speaker, but who sent his regrets explaining his duties in Washington prevented him from keeping the engagement. Miss Reynolds said public health nurses, who are part of the Nassau County Department of Health staff, formerly visited only families of the poor, but now find work among people in all walks of life. They not only attend the ill, she added, but among other things assist in the rehabilitation of patients after they recover, especially those who have suffered a disabling illness, such as heart attack or tuberculosis. These people, she continued, cannot return to their former means of earning a livelihood, so must develop other ways of earning a living. Health nurses besides being registered nurses must have special training in social conditions to qualify them for their work which includes everything outside-of-hospital and the private field. Miss Reynolds said the activities of visiting nurses were the same as those of health nurses, but that instead of being paid by the county, they were employed by life insurance companies and other agencies. She said there were large sections of Nassau County, including Freeport, where there were no visiting nurses, and suggested that the Rotarians might undertake the sponsoring of such a group in this area.

BUILD WITH GOOD TASTE

THE CLIFTON has the utility room replace the basement, with an insulated floor slab laid on a gravel fill. The heating unit beside the chimney is located in the center of the house and provision is made in the utility room for shelving and storage cabinets. The kitchen, utility room and bathroom are grouped together to reduce plumbing installation.

Bedrooms have twin closets with storage space above. There is a coat closet in the front vestibule and a linen closet in the bedroom hall.

The living room has a picture window unit with a planting area below it, and a centrally located fireplace. The kitchen and dining area are well-lighted and convenient to living room.

Plans call for frame construction with simple wall lines and low pitch roof. The exterior is finished with wide siding except the front living room wall which is of exterior plywood.

Dimensions are 34 feet by 28 feet with no extension projections. The floor area is 952 square feet and the cubage is 10,472 cubic feet.

For further information about THE CLIFTON, write THE LEADER, 20 South Main st., Freeport, N.Y. This is a service for our readers.

Land Acquired Start Plans

When you have the property, your architect can start work on the plans for your home. If you are building in a restricted area in which a specific type of house predominates, you may want your home styled and designed in keeping with the neighboring dwellings, but not to such an extent that it fails to meet fully the requirements of your family. A good architect can plan a house that will include all the features you need and still conform sufficiently to the other houses in your neighborhood. In unrestricted neighborhoods, the type of house may be determined completely by your own taste and preferences and how much you can afford to pay for it. It is a wise precaution to avoid style eccentricities and other features of doubtful acceptability in your locality in case you should ever need to sell or rent the house. There is plenty of room for individuality without marking your house forever as "Smith's Folly."

Not the least of the factors governing the plan of your home is your ability to pay for the plan. Houses are designed to meet the individual requirements of the clients so far as possible, but every house becomes a compromise of requirements and dollars as planning progresses; and no client has ever approached an architect with full and complete understanding of just what he wants.

To get the home you want and can afford—or the nearest possible approach to it—you must be ready to spend considerable time with your architect, summing up your preferences, your likes and dislikes, your financial limitations, and the needs and necessities of your family. Your architect then arranges the rooms, determines the heating, plumbing, and electrical systems you need, and provides whatever extra features your means warrant. The exterior of the house is never planned until a useful interior arrangement has been devised.

The esthetic factor in modern house design is important, but it is secondary to livability, economy and utility. In former times architects first plotted the exterior of the house, then jammed the rooms into this shell as best they could. But the small house is a different structure altogether, with its light, airy rooms designed to ease the pace of modern life.

Modern conveniences like thermostatic heat control, built-in showers, extra lavatories, efficiency kitchens and similar amenities can do much to make your home more livable and completely satisfactory. And yet these things cost relatively little, considering how greatly they enhance the value of your house as a home. Your architect can help you decide what extra conveniences you need and what part of the total cost of your home should be apportioned for these features.

The Importance of the Architect Remember that the more carefully and thoroughly you plan with your architect, the better your home will be. Planning your home is far more important than the actual construction. You have to take, and you should make it count for all time. Be sure there are no important omissions while your house is still "on paper" for you may not be able to add them satisfactorily, if at all, after the house is built. At best, any structural change will be considerably more expensive as an afterthought than as part of the original plan. Architects have to be mind-readers under any circumstances. You should make it as easy as possible for them to anticipate your particular wishes.

Frequently an architect can save enough on the cost of your house to pay his own fee. While no fixed sum can be set down as the architect's fee, it is generally ten per cent of the cost of your house, including all plans, specifications, designs (elevations), and supervision of construction.

How to Attract New Industries to Freeport

Committee Functions Needed to Produce Results

ARTICLE II
By DAVID M. MOLTTHROP

In last week's article we did a bit of individual soul searching about Freeport. Some questions may have been raised as to what the suggested Committees might do to make our community a better Freeport.

1. The Historical Committee—It's often said that history repeats itself. The Historical Committee's job is to look for lessons out of the past to help Freeport in the future.

Why was Freeport established where it is?
What stages of development has Freeport undergone?
Why did each separate stage of growth develop?
What caused each stage to flower and then to fade?
What factors are responsible for Freeport's present stage?
What can Freeport do to improve its prospects by altering trends or riding along with them?

Have we become the bedroom of New York City?
What group of people founded Freeport?
What are the virtues and defects of Freeport's present population?
What present trends are shaping Freeport's future?
What effect will these trends have on Freeport?
What can Freeport do to improve its prospects by altering trends or riding along with them?

2. Industrial Development Committee—This group has the job of analyzing existing local industry and determine factors that will encourage potential local industry.

The Labor Situation:
What is the size and character of Freeport's labor force, by age, sex, training skill and place of residence? What type of labor does Freeport show surplus? What shortage of labor exists in Freeport? How many of Freeport's citizens are employed elsewhere—which of these would prefer working in or near Freeport? Who outside Freeport are now currently employed in existing Freeport industry?

The Industrial Pattern:
What products are now made in Freeport? What different new products could be produced by existing plants in Freeport? What local plants now have idle capacity? What waste products are derived in large quantities from local Freeport industry? What by-products? What materials have to be shipped from other places to Freeport to be used by Freeport industry? (New industry could possibly be brought here to supply existing industry.)

The Public Utilities:
What about Freeport's water supply?
What about Freeport's sewage or waste disposal?
What are the transportation facilities?
How do Freeport's electric and gas resources and rates compare with other communities?

Other Industrial Considerations:
What available industrial sites and buildings does Freeport now have ready to encourage industry?
What raw materials do we have in the surrounding area?
What are the chances of Freeport backing financially new buildings for deservng industries?

What are Freeport's financial resources? (Capitalization, deposits and surplus of local banks and Trust Companies.)
Local Government:
What is the nature of Freeport's local Government?
What services are supplied by Freeport's local Government?
What is the size of Freeport's police force and the local crime record?
What are the tax rates? What debts does Freeport have?
What type of fire protection is afforded by Freeport and what is the fire loss record?

Trades and Services Committee:
As Freeport will know manufacturing is not the only road to community economic stability. Freeport would do well to expand with its industries and commercial activities at the same time—This committee would answer the following questions:
How many people are employed in Freeport's local stores?
What kind and how many retail stores are doing business in Freeport?
What volume of trade is there per capita?
Do Freeporters buy in Freeport or do they go elsewhere to shop?
If they go to Hempstead, Garden City, New York City or Rockville Centre for what do they go and why?
Are there any vacant business properties in the Freeport Shopping Centers?

What type of retail stores are conspicuous in their absence?
What is considered to be Freeport's shopping drawing area? Can this area be expanded?
This second of a series of articles is designed to further stimulate thinking of Freeport's citizens and leaders to help make Freeport an even better community. Next week's article will deal with how to get the job done.

Sports

Bill Ashley's CORNER

In preparation for next fall's gridiron season a group of Nassau and Suffolk County coaches met for a one day clinic at Garden City last Saturday. The arrangements were made by the Nassau Football Coaches Association and this first venture was a real success.

Benny Friedman, Art Matus and Johnny Bateman made a great contribution and put on a good clinic as they spent the day with the coaches, brought back La Prairie, ex-Memphis star, with him to help his demonstrations. He spent thirty minutes just explaining and illustrating how the ball comes back to the quarterback behind the center, angle of the hands, position of fingers, position of the feet on the ball, etc. This may give some idea of the complexity of the modern game of football which explains the need for emphasis physical set-up, coaching staff and drill periods that are so vital to the carrying on of a football program. Most other sports are much more a matter of individual ability and much less a matter of drill and precision.

This probably explains why football is pretty much of a year round affair at our big institutions and also why football coaches get together in June, July or any other month.

Several visitors stopped in at the clinic, "Boller" Burns, ex-Chaminade coach and at present with the N.Y.C. police force as a detective; Beryl Bollette, N.Y.U. and N.Y. Giant back; Len Dobbins and Babe Gangemi from Freeport, and several others were with us. All agreed that it was well worth while and should become a yearly affair.

Next week Freeport High School will conduct graduation exercises and many names that have been in our local sports picture will be leaving. We have had some outstanding athletes in this present group and it may be several years before we again come up with competitors like Nestvogel, Chimeri and Simon, who were all scholars in football, Plunkett and Pearsall, All Scholastic basketball players, Malinowski, Jones and Simmons from the diamond and Cleary and O'Malley in track.

Many of these boys competed in more than one sport and their loss will be particularly felt. Football is harder hit by graduation than usual and loses ten out of the eleven early season starters.

Odds and Ends in Sports. . . The Fathers' and Boosters' Club party held in the gym last Friday evening was for the purpose of awarding the outstanding player trophies for winter and spring sports. Dave Pearsall received the Varsity basketball trophy while George Dragonetti won the J.V. award. Jack Plunkett and Phil Roberts won the baseball and Ed O'Malley the track award. The championship rifle team members were presented individual statuettes and the twirlers each received a bracelet. The lacrosse award went to Joe Masone. The player awards are on the basis of worth to the team, leadership and sportsmanship.

Last week was not a good one for local sports. The baseball team after finishing the regular season in a tie with Central of Valley Stream lost out in a play off. Jay Schmidt had a bad finger which didn't help him pitching and Central was able to hit him hard. Sewanhaka knocked off our lacrosse, which wasn't unexpected as no one has been able to even come close to them this year. However, our hopes of breaking their string did not materialize in spite of the fact that Freeport scored the most goals against them and in general gave them the most trouble of the season.

Forest Jewelers in First Place; Tackel Stamford This Sunday

Forest Jewelers having taken first place in the American Girls Baseball Conference by beating the Stamford (Conn.) Nutmegs, champions of 1949, in a thrilling contest at the Municipal Stadium Sunday night.

by a score of 3 to 0, have a harder task confronting them next Sunday afternoon. The local girls are to journey to Stamford for another set-to with the champions on their own grounds and must play super baseball to win. Only 108 fans witnessed the thrilling contest.

Ruth Zimmerman, pitcher, faced 15-year-old Sewanhaka High School girl, pitched the Jewelers to a brilliant win on Sunday night. She held the visitors to four hits scattered through as many innings and was really threatened in only one inning when her own bad peg to first in an effort to pick a runner off the bag had her in trouble for a time, but from which she emerged successfully. Ruth struck out 13 opposing batters and walked only two.

Two sisters, Toni and Stepheny Uzar, twirled for the Nutmegs. They held the locals to four hits, only one of which figured in the scoring, and struck out seven, the former 2 and the latter 5.

The Jewelers threatened to score on several occasions but it was not until the hectic eighth that they broke through. Joan Pepper, short stop, was walked to start the inning. Kitten Pakulak, second base, laid down a neat sacrifice. When S. Uzar messed up a little pop-up off the bat of Miss Zimmerman, Miss Pepper, catcher, got an infield hit, populating the bases. Yvonne Coker, right field, was named, but Dolly Barton, centerfield, was hit by a pitched ball and Miss Pepper was forced in with the first run of the game. When the opposing pitcher committed her second error of the inning on Ethel Flohn's roller, Miss Zimmerman and Miss Watts scored runs two and three. Ethel Bartels, first base, struck out to end the inning.

Joan Pepper started the game for the locals with a single and was worked around to third but was caught at the plate when Miss Zimmerman's squeeze play attempt resulted in a roller to the pitcher's mound and T. Uzar tossed to Red Barney for the out.

Ethel Bartels committed a Merkle in the third. She drove the ball to the right field wall and pulled up at third only to be declared out for failure to touch first base. The Jewelers filled the bases on the fourth, on a hit by Miss Zimmerman, an error which landed Mickey Watts on the base, and a base on balls. MEADOWBROOK POLO GAME TO BENEFIT NASSAU SCOUTS

The Meadow Brook Club in Westbury will open the Polo Season with a high goal polo game for the benefit of Boy Scouts Units in Nassau County Sunday afternoon. This is to be the third annual match offered the Scouts by the Meadow Brook Club. All money raised through the sale of 25,000 tickets will benefit the home Club Pack or Scout Troop. Some Units are planning to send their Scouts to summer camp, others to purchase camping and handicraft equipment.

The top players in the east are donating their services so this will be the only polo game played on Long Island that day. It will follow a parade scheduled to start at 3 o'clock.
